Planning that long trip and want to make sure you have everlasting music? Plan ahead and get a replacement pack for all your Fugoo speaker's needs...just in case. And there is always a "case" that happens in your active and adventurous life. You know as well as anyone it's better to have something and not need it. And who wants to go without music, especially when you need it most—on the face of that mountain or in that perfect romantic moment around the campfire. So be prepared for the elements and get the Accessory Pack now—the parts you need to have so that you never have to need.

BEAM ME UP, FUGOO

How cool is this? Seriously. Say hello to the future, the digital age—a time when high-tech meets the stylish and welcomes in the tough. Say hello to the ultra-cool Remote Control for Fugoo speakers. Wear it on your wrist or on a necklace lanyard, and never worry about the wrong song coming on at the wrong time. Adjust your playlist from across the room, so you don't have to move when that really great conversation just shouldn't be interrupted. Oh, and if her beer needs opening, Fugoo Remote Control just happens to have a bottle opener built in. Fugoo Remote Control—the all-night, any-scene, swiss-army ultimate in remotes.

IS IT A WATCH? IS IT A BRACELET? OR IS IT SIMPLY THE COOLEST REMOTE EVER?

Concerned with fashion? No worries—we got this. A high-tech bracelet fashioned like a watch of the future, Fugoo's Remote Control fits with any style, any vibe, any image...as long as you're part of this century, that is. Use it in the snow, the rain, at the beach or that late night party. No water, sand, dirt, or even champaign blasts will damage your Fugoo Remote or your Fugoo Speaker. The Remote Control is just one more innovation in an elite line of Fugoo products designed for the elegant, built for the tough, and developed with convenience in mind.

AS ACTIVE AND AS VERSATILE AS YOU ARE

With Fugoo's versatile Multi Mount, you'll never have to be without music again. Fasten Fugoo to your backpack or carabiner, your belt strap or even just your pants. Fugoo is built for sand and sun, sleet and snow, dirt and rain. With such adaptability, it only makes sense to have a multifaceted mounting system that can weather the storm or take the heat. With tripod mounting capability, a rope or carabiner loop, and a clip for straps or belts, the Multi Mount takes music from the previously impossible to the totally doable... Sound familiar? Just like you, tough as nails and ready to go anywhere, the Fugoo Multi Mount is willing and able.

ANYTIME, ANYWHERE, ANY SPEED

Like to go fast? We get it. But why should that stop the music? With the Fugoo Multi Mount, no activity rules out great tunes. From skating along the beach to snowboarding down the park, from climbing that multi-pitch face to camping 3000 feet above sea level, the Fugoo Multi Mount makes all things and all terrains music friendly. Hike it. Climb it. Skate it. Do it. You don't care when or where—you're always ready. And with the Multi Mount, so is Fugoo.

PLAY HARD. PLAY FAST. JUST PLAY.

Take your Fugoo anywhere you go. Seriously, anywhere. Strap it around the post of the beach volleyball net, the basketball hoop, the goal post, the field fence—like we said, anywhere. Velcro powered and easy to take on and off, the Strap Mount means your Fugoo speaker can join the game totally hassle-free. And don't worry about the ball damaging the speaker, of course. With Fugoo Sport and Fugoo Tough, no ball—heck, no rock—could hurt this amazing Bluetooth speaker. With the Strap Mount, Fugoo is always ready to do some damage, without taking any damage.

DAY OR NIGHT. VETICAL OR UPSIDE DOWN.

When the day is done and it's time for a little R&R, use the Fugoo strap mount to take your speaker anywhere the party goes. Fasten your stylish speaker to the back of a beach chair, the base of a poker table, or even around a tree for that Summer keg party in the woods. Want to take the Speaker down and put it at the end of bar? Easy breezy: the Strap Mount snaps in and out of your Fugoo speaker quickly and effortlessly. Jam it out by day, groove it in by night. Anytime, anywhere—Fugoo is there.

WHO EVER THOUGHT MUSIC COULD TRAVEL THIS FAR?

The sun is setting, the path is smooth, and the music is alive and grooving. Whether it's a lazy ride on your beach cruiser or you're blasting down the mountain off-road as usual, your Fugoo speaker won't budge when using the Fugoo Bike Mount. For all those cool and smooth afternoons, for any of those rough and tough early mornings, the Bike Mount lets Fugoo ride along into the sunset or down that next-level trail. Bump it. Shift it. Jam it. Ride it—any way you want. With the Fugoo Bike Mount, your tough-as-nails speaker is in it for the long haul, any which way it comes.

YOU DON'T STOP WHERE THE BIKE TRAIL ENDS. WHY SHOULD YOUR SPEAKER?

Leaving the bike behind to do some hiking? No problemo. Fugoo's Bike Mount also secures to walking sticks, poles, skis, canes, or any other type of bars you use along the trails. Even fasten it to a nearby branch when it's time to relax by a stream and take in the forest. The sounds of nature and good music, anytime, anywhere—never an issue for Fugoo. And so, never an issue for you!
